

Insurance Customer Service Representative (Los Gatos or San Mateo)

Our agency is looking for a very motivated individual interested in a unique customer service experience. Compensation level and professional development possibilities make this a motivating and long term career opportunity.

Located at the heart of Silicon Valley and the broader San Francisco Bay Area, our agency is focused in priority on vibrant professional communities - from Silicon Valley to Napa/Sonoma - whom we serve as individuals and businesses.

As an Insurance Customer Service Representative your role will be essential in providing customers excellent service while developing personalized sales skills. You will reach out to existing customers to help them get the value of our relationship and help them find insurance products that best address their needs.

Brands we represent include Farmers Insurance and Farmers-compatible carriers like Blue Shield of California, Anthem and Kaiser Permanente.

To succeed in this position you need a valid Insurance license and a minimum of two years of experience in sales or customer service of P&C products.

Apply today to start your path to a new and exciting service career!
